

Conference venue & how to get there

Conference hall and registration desk are located at the University campus in a quiet suburban area in the north of Prague (Suchdol), 30 minutes by public transport from the city centre, or about 50 minutes from the airport. For details, see the map at the end of this guide.

By public transport

1) From the Prague-Ruzyně Airport

Take the bus no. 119 from Terminal 1 or 2 to the metro station "Nádraží Veleslavín" station (interval 5–10 min, duration ca 15 minutes). Then use the underground (Metro) line A (green line) to the station "Dejvická". Change to the bus no. 107 or 147, direction Suchdol or Výhledy (interval 5–10 min, duration ca 15 min). To reach the conference venue with registration desk, alight from the bus stop "Zemědělská univerzita".

2) From the city centre, e.g. main train station

Use underground (Metro) line A (green line) to the terminal station "Dejvická". Change to the bus no. 107 or 147, direction Suchdol or Výhledy (interval 5–10 min, duration ca. 15 min). To reach the conference venue with registration desk, alight from the bus stop "Zemědělská univerzita".

To reach the university campus from the airport or city center, you need a 32CZK ticket (transfer ticket valid for 90 minutes). Tickets are sold in the ticket vending machines (some, including those at the airport, accept credit cards) and in most tobacco or press shops and kiosks. On a bus, you can also buy the ticket directly from the driver for 40 CZK. For details on ticket sales and fares see www.dpp.cz/en/ticket-sales.

At registration, each participant will get a ticket valid for whole period of the conference.
